FROM YOUR MAYOR

Dear South Holland Residents and Friends,

Does it seem to you, as it does to me, that the summer of 2025 is flying by? Is it even possible that we're already making plans for the fall?

We've all heard the phrase "time flies when you're having fun." In South Holland, staying active and having fun are great reasons time moves so quickly. Our community spirit has shone brightly this summer, with wonderful participation in events these past months. Our Memorial Day Parade and Remembrance Ceremony were the best and most well-attended in our history. Churches, schools, businesses, service organizations, and residents came together in record numbers to give thanks and celebrate. The South Holland Ministerial Association led a marvelous Juneteenth celebration, and our Independence Day festivities were again a huge success—full of family fun and the most spectacular fireworks display in the Chicago Southland region.

Our "Coming Together 2030" Strategic Plan continues to showcase our village's unity and commitment to serve. In this issue you'll see examples of how our celebrations make "time fly" in South Holland. You'll also see why our time together will keep flying as we move through July into August with new plans and opportunities.

As we enjoy the rest of this hot, yet beautiful summer, let's cherish these moments, giving thanks to God for our freedoms and those who sacrificed for them. South Holland truly is a "Village Like No Other!" I'm grateful we have so much more ahead this summer to make "time fly" in our wonderful community.

WHAT'S HAPPENING AROUND SOUTH HOLLAND

QUIKTRIP GROUNDBREAKING

Construction is underway for a brand-new QuikTrip coming to South Holland! The state-of-the-art 7,318 sq. ft. convenience store will be equipped with 8 regular fuel pumps (16 fueling positions) for passenger vehicles, and 7 high-speed diesel pumps for commercial vehicles and over-the-road trucks. There will also be a QT Kitchen offering freshly prepared meals, snacks, and beverages. While this location, at 172nd Street and Halsted, will offer diesel and regular fuel, it will not operate as a truck stop. We're excited to welcome QT to our growing business community—stay tuned for construction updates as this project moves forward!

TOOL LENDING CENTER

Are you part of a neighborhood group, church, organization or business looking to give back to the community? As part of the Coming Together 2030 plan, the Village has put together a Tool Lending Center. This is a mobile trailer filled with tools for yard work such as lawnmowers, trimmers, chainsaws, rakes, etc. We encourage groups to use these tools for a group cleanup day or to help individuals in need of yard work. For more information and to register for the trailer, visit southholland.org/toollendingcenter.

SMART911 EMERGENCY ALERT SYSTEM

Are you signed up to receive emergency alerts from the Village? We encourage all South Holland residents and business owners/managers to sign up for Smart911 Emergency Alerts. With it, we have the ability to place thousands of phone calls per minute (to both landlines and mobile phones), and to send out texts immediately. You can also fill out a profile on your household so that first responders can help you faster in an emergency. Visit southholland.org/smart911 for more information and to sign up.

TOWN CENTER PARKING

The gravel parking lot located at South Park Avenue and 160th Place—across from the entrance to Veterans Memorial Park—is currently closed due to construction of the new Family Athletic Center. As a result, this parking lot will not be available for events at Veterans Park until construction is completed.

To accommodate visitors during this period, a temporary parking lot is being constructed at the former Roosevelt School property, located at Louis Avenue and East 161st Street. The Village will continue to share updates and provide additional parking options for upcoming events via the official website and social media channels. We appreciate your patience and cooperation during this exciting development.

The Village of South Holland is hosting a FREE competition presented by Major League Baseball!

THE FRAGRANCE OF CHRIST

By Pete Tassio, Pastor of King's Community Church

Fragrance is considered to be one of the most elusive commodities in the world. For example, the fragrance of a spring or summer's day is impossible to define and can't be imitated. Yet, nothing is more stimulating to memory than some specific scent which acts as a powerful reminder that we associate with a past experience. Fragrance is also considered very valuable as well. The fragrance market worldwide is projected to generate a revenue of over $62 billion in 2025.

Women and men alike are very willing to pay exorbitant amounts in order to possess a particular perfume or cologne.

The Lord Jesus is himself the Anointed One, the Christ. Like sweet and fragrant anointing oil, the Holy Spirit makes known to men the beauties of his holy life, which glorifies God. Truly the precious name of Jesus Christ is as a sweet ointment to those who love him. This is also true of believers. According to 2 Corinthians 2:14, we're told that we as the Lord's vessels or containers are also to manifest the fragrance of Christ wherever we go. As incense-bearers, we are to scatter the savor of the knowledge of Christ in our walk.

Our spiritual fragrance comes from a heart relationship with God, which is born of fellowship and obedience. This fragrance that stems from a Spirit-directed life originates from Christ, and points men not to us but to God. The more we're permeated with Christ, the more fragrant we become to others. Based on the Greek usage, the verse from Corinthians reveals that the knowledge of Christ is symbolized as an odor communicating its nature and effectiveness through the ministry of Christ. Therefore, it's the personal knowledge of Christ we experience in our daily lives that becomes a sweet savor or fragrance.

Let us remember that each day we must seek the Lord and the filling of the Spirit. It's a matter of life and death for those we have contact with! And only those who are saturated with Christ by the Spirit are sufficient and qualified for this invaluable work entrusted to God's people. We have this treasure in earthen vessels, as the apostle Paul says, which shows that the great power is from God, not from us. Hallelujah!

SOUTH HOLLAND

A FRESH START ON SOUTH PARK

Elixir Squeeze & Brew brings handcrafted juices, smoothies, and teas to life

Elixir Squeeze & Brew owners
Leslie Johnson and Jonathan Thomas

In early May, Leslie Johnson and Jonathan Thomas joined forces to open a business that projected their passion for healthy living. The duo opened Elixir Squeeze & Brew, located at 17112 South Park Avenue, on May 2.

Johnson, who grew up on the south side of Chicago, attended the University of Michigan and Chicago State University, where she studied pharmacy. She's currently a practicing ambulatory care board-certified pharmacist. "I'm driven by the passion of helping individuals and the community at large by promoting health," she says.

Thomas is also the owner of Icesculpting Fitness in South Holland. A certified personal trainer with nine years of experience, he strives to push others to reach their highest potential. He also incorporates his wealth of knowledge of meal planning into his work.

When Thomas learned of the vacant retail space, he pitched the idea to Johnson, and the two worked to bring their idea to life. Thomas' passion for blending organic teas, along with their interest in health and wellness, morphed into a business focused on healthy beverages. Aside from organic teas, the menu includes original smoothie recipes and fresh, cold-pressed juices. "All of our ingredients are fresh and personally hand-picked," Johnson says.

The top-selling items are smoothies called Dragon's Kiss (which includes dragonfruit, strawberry and banana), PB PUMP (peanut butter, bananas and oats), and a juice called the Green Machine (made with spinach, apple and pineapple).

"We are often asked how we came up with our menu, and we started by color, wanting to create an eye-catching menu," Johnson says. "Our combination of ingredients, you will not find duplicated."

Hours are currently 7am-2pm Monday through Friday and 8am-2pm Saturday, with plans to expand hours based on customer demand. The website, elixirsbc.com, is under construction, but will be launching soon. You can follow @ElixirSqueezeandBrew on Instagram, TikTok and Facebook.

"We have a community environment with a friendly and welcoming familial atmosphere. We service all ages, and are passionate about community involvement. Our goal is health with a great taste," Johnson says. "We incorporate educational classes with our healthy drinks, placing emphasis on physical health and education while providing the opportunity for you to take your first step in the healthy direction."

Discounts are available to first responders and public safety personnel, as well as to seniors. 💧

KEEPING OUR YOUTH ACTIVE

ENDLESS PROGRAMS AVAILABLE FOR YOUTH AT THE SOUTH HOLLAND COMMUNITY CENTER

By Kyli Williams

If you've ever wondered whether there's enough for kids and teens to do in South Holland— especially during the long summer months—the South Holland Community Center is here to remind you that there's more happening than you might think.

Step inside the Community Center on a weekday afternoon and you'll hear the sounds of summer— laughter echoing through the halls, sneakers squeaking across the gym floor, and counselors leading games, crafts, and team-building activities. The South Holland Community Center's Summer Camp programs keep kids active, social, and safe while school is out. With daily activities that include indoor and outdoor games, art projects, and field trips, summer at the Center is anything but boring.

Older youth often spend their afternoons shooting hoops in the indoor gym or building skills and confidence in swimming lessons. For teens who prefer outdoor fun, a brand-new program at Veterans Park began July 1. This evening program takes place from 5 to 7 p.m. on select Tuesdays and Thursdays and is open to youth ages 13 to 18. Participants will take part in active games such as dodgeball, kickball, volleyball, baseball, softball, football, and soccer. The goal is to offer teens a safe, structured space to enjoy friendly competition and spend time with peers in a positive setting.

For those who want to explore creative passions, the Community Center's performing arts programming offers classes in dance, voice, and acting for ages 7 to 18—a chance to express themselves and learn something new in a supportive environment. A ballet class is also available for young dancers ages 5 to 6, introducing them to movement, rhythm, and coordination in a playful, welcoming setting. Additionally, a Basic Jewelry Making class gives children of all ages the opportunity to explore hands-on design techniques and learn how to create their own wearable art.

For families looking to get their children involved in sports, there are activities for every age group and skill level. From Little Dragons Karate for ages 4 to 6 to tennis lessons open to both youth and adults, kids have options that grow with them—and that entire families can enjoy together.

This summer also brings the return of the MLB Pitch, Hit & Run competition, a free event hosted at Veterans Park. Open to kids ages

7 to 14, the event allows participants to showcase their baseball and softball skills in a fun and supportive environment, with the potential to advance to the finals during the Major League Baseball World Series.

Looking ahead, a beloved tradition returns this fall as Girl Scouts makes its comeback to South Holland. This program will offer girls the chance to build friendships, develop leadership skills, and explore new interests—right in their own community.

More than just a place to play, the South Holland Community Center serves as a vital hub for local families—creating opportunities for kids to grow, thrive, and feel a true sense of belonging in their hometown.

During the summer—and every season after—the Community Center offers programs that keep young residents engaged and supported throughout the year. Whether you're looking for ways to keep your child active, introduce them to a new hobby, or connect with other local families, there's something waiting for you here.

2025 RED TULIP AWARDS HONOR
SOUTH HOLLAND'S INSPIRING EDUCATORS

Each year, the Village of South Holland comes together to celebrate the remarkable dedication of its educators through the Red Tulip Awards—a symbol of gratitude and recognition for teachers who go far beyond the classroom. Educators are nominated by the principals of their school, and the South Holland Education Commission selects the final recipients. This year, Mayor Don De Graff and the South Holland Education Commission honored seven outstanding teachers for their passion, innovation, and impact in 2025.

At Madison School, two educators were recognized for their exceptional work with students at different ends of the educational spectrum. KaSandra Diggs, a 4th-grade teacher, was honored for her holistic approach to teaching—emphasizing not only academics but character. She helped launch Mad7 News,

Kelly Bonomo

Brooke Bryant

KaSandra Diggs

Camille Johnson

Edward Medina

a groundbreaking student-run news program that made waves across Illinois. Her presence extends beyond school walls, attending student events and mentoring through real-world skills like videography and broadcasting.

Fellow Madison educator Edward Medina was also honored for his leadership in teaching English Learners. Through his efforts, Madison has surpassed state averages in language acquisition benchmarks. Medina is celebrated for his cultural sensitivity, data-driven strategies, and ability to welcome and guide newly arrived students from across the globe, empowering them with both language and confidence.

From McKinley Elementary and Jr. High, two leaders stood out. Brooke Bryant, a 6th-grade teacher and Golden Apple recipient, was recognized for her multifaceted leadership—coaching the Drill Team, chairing Student Council, and inspiring service and teamwork in and out of the classroom. Alongside her, Ericka Roberts, a 5th-grade teacher with over 18 years in the district, was praised for her coordination of after-school and summer programs, as well as her ability to foster strong relationships with students and families alike.

In higher education, Camille Johnson of South Suburban College received the award for her nearly three decades of service, 18 of them in adult education. Known for her empathy and dedication, Johnson helps adult learners overcome personal and academic obstacles, becoming a trusted mentor and advocate for those seeking a second chance at education.

Finally, Kelly Bonomo of Thornwood High School was recognized for her tireless commitment to math education. As the Math I Core Coordinator and Mathletes coach, Bonomo not only boosts student achievement but also lifts her colleagues through collaboration and mentorship. Her influence spans academic clubs, statewide competitions, and even scholarship opportunities.

These seven recipients exemplify the heart of education in South Holland—caring, dedicated, and transformative. The Red Tulip Award remains not just a celebration, but a reflection of a community that deeply values those who shape the future. 🌸
